INSTRUCTIONS & NOTES

1. This form is in both English and Chinese. You only need to complete the form in one language.
2. To be eligible to submit a thesis proposal, students must have completed at least eighteen (18) credits of coursework, including credits for courses in which they are currently enrolled. The latest students must submit a proposal is before the midterm of the first semester of the fourth year. The thesis proposal oral exam may not take place until at least one (1) week after the application is filed and the written proposal is given to all committee members. The thesis proposal committee should consist of the student's adviser and at least one other committee member; scores will be based both on the written proposal and the presentation.
3. Department of English follows the "Taipei Tech Master's Degree Thesis Defense Policy" on the qualification of thesis proposal committee members. The policy states that the thesis committee members should specialize in the student's thesis topics, works of art, exhibition, or technical reports. They should also fit in one of the following qualification types:
  1. Past or current full professor, associate professor, or assistant professor
  2. Academician of Academia Sinica; or past or current researcher, associate research, or assistant research
  3. PhD holder with distinguished achievements
  4. People with distinguished achievements in rare and special topics or professional practices
 The qualification of Type 3 and Type 4 should be reviewed in a department faculty meeting. Relatives may not serve as committee members.
